

Please do not establish ANY rule that has the effect of weakening Indiana's "Do Not Call" legislation. This has worked extremely well. From my own experience, I have received only one⁴ (1) unsolicited call since putting myself on the list, and they hung up immediately when I told them I was on the llist. If you wish to establish an effective rule, please folow the Indiana example.